Dear Mr. Casey,

It's Convention time again! We would like to invite you to speak at the Second Annual Convention of the Senior Action Coalition of Lorain County. This year's convention will be held on Saturday, October 16, 1 to 4 p.m., at Southview High School in Lorain, (2270 East 42nd St.).

The Senior Action Coalition is a non-profit, community organization representing more than 30,000 senior citizens and 60 senior groups. Last year's convention drew more than 700 delegates from the Lorain County area. This year more than 500 delegates are expected to gather under the theme "United and Growing Stronger".

This past year was full of major victories! Some of our most outstanding accomplishments include:

- *a statewide utility reform which will mean millions of dollars returned to Ohio gas consumers.
- *major improvements in the Cityview area of Lorain, including the cleaning of 13 empty lots, 3 homes improved and 2 torn down.
- *A program by the Lorain County Medical Society to help seniors with medical paperwork free of charge.

The coalition has also won numerous other victories in the areas of health care, energy, neighborhood development, social security and Medicare/Medicaid to name a few.

We hope you will join us on the 16th. Please respond in writing or by calling 244-4766 or 323-3761, by October 5.

Sincerely,

Ana Lugo
